ENVIRONMENTALIST PAULSON
TO SPEAK APRIL 20 AT UM

MISSOULA--

Dr. Glenn Paulson, a noted environmental scientist, will present a free public lecture on health problems in industrial environments at 8:15 p.m. Thursday (April 20) at the University of Montana.

The program, to be in Science Complex 131 at UM, is sponsored by the Program Council of the Associated Students of UM. A reception honoring Dr. Paulson will follow the lecture in the University Center Montana Rooms.

Dr. Paulson has given numerous lectures, seminars, papers and discussions on environmental problems throughout the U. S. and Canada. For example, he has lectured at the Kennedy Institute of Politics, Harvard University, Columbia University and Hunter College.

Other public appearances include testimony before city, state and federal legislative bodies concerning several environmental issues. Dr. Paulson has been a paid consultant to CBS, NBC, the Conservation Foundation, the Oil, Chemical and Atomic Workers International Union and the United Auto Workers.

While on leave from The Rockefeller University in 1967-68, Dr. Paulson served as assistant director of the Science for Citizen Program at the New School for Social Research in New York City.
